World Photography Day – 19 August 2020

Thank you for taking part in our photographic contest for World Photography Day. We aim to build up a full photographic record of Falkland's listed buildings, other interesting buildings, and our Conservation Area in general.

- Photographs should be of buildings, structures, and the village in general – no identifiable people, please!
- Please photograph only what's visible from the street – don't go onto private drives or gardens.
- You have until the end of August to take your photos and get them to us.
- There will be small prizes for the three best photographs.
- Ideally, please upload your images to Flickr under the 'Attribution-ShareAlike Creative Commons' licence, and then add them to the Falkland Historic Buildings project group: www.flickr.com/groups/falklandbuildings/.
- Alternatively, just email them to us at news@falklandsociety.org.uk. We can accept images in JPG or PNG format.

Please list your best photographs below (maximum ten per person, so choose your best ten (you can of course send us more, but we will only be looking at your best ten when awarding the prizes.
